THEY TELL ON EACH OTHER.

McCormick acted naughtily so they say, got himself deposed and now he goes after others. He really tells about Dr. Lackey loving a girl attendant and so manifest was his admiration and attention that it was talked about, and other attendants were threatened with dismission because they would not associate with his woman. This is McCormick talking and a pretty mess is being stirred up at the Hopkinsville Asylum. He also tells about State Inspector Hines gambling with divers parties about the asylum. Some more deposing may be necessary. If the lives of those in charge are in any degree subject to adverse criticism they should be discharged at once. No man or woman with character stains is worthy any position within the gift of the people through their representatives or otherwise. However, this tell-tale method does not in any way modify the charges against McCormick.

TOO LITTLE FOR A PRESIDENT.

When a high Executive goes swinging around the country, appearing at the tail of a car at way stations, it appears to thinking folks very much like the touch to a sensitive plant. The leader draws up and becomes diminutive. Small or still is the man who goes around like President McKinley on an aristocratic Stokins special, flattering with the view of ingratiating himself and party into the graces of the weaker brethren who are the multitudes that do the voting. A mighty small business this, on the part of a man who 'poses as great.

CHINA WILL WANT PECUNIARY AID.

Indemnity demanded will be $50,000,000 teals, or in our money about $630,000,000. Now China, not feeling able to negotiate for so much ready cash, will ask the powers to aid her in securing this amount together with an additional amount of 20,000,000 teals or $28,000,000 annually. It would not be well for the United States to get into this mix up on finances for the reason that trouble unlooked for often grows out of just such deals.

PROPHETS.

There are modern day prophets who foresee early financial troubles. With prophetic vision they see money matters in a closer pinch than ever before, and were it not for the fact the world has ever had her share of men whose minds ran in channels of evil forebodings we might be a little alarmed. The fact that good times confront us is not denied, but the wisdom of the policy by which attained is another distinct question. We have money in the channels of trade, plenty of it. True it is borrowed money, but with half way financing a rich country like this can be able to meet the payment of bonds at maturity without producing any kind of contraction.

AFTER THEM.

For the many complaints of the real estate owners along the valley of Hinkston creek concerning the pollution of the water by sloop from the McBrayer distillery comes the excuse in substance, this: "We could not help it, for while we slept some despoiler of property cut our dam and let the sloop out into the stream. Well, if this is true, (we will not doubt it) the managers will place guards and see this is not repeated.

The parties effected are enraged and will ask redress from the courts, when the proprietors of the distillery will have an opportunity to affirm by evidence their statements. The parties guilty, whether managers of distilleries or persons for pure meanness, should be subjected to the full penalty of the law.

LANDED.

Dr. L. H. Blanton, former President of Central University, has landed 2d place in the Kentucky Presbyterian Educational Combination at a price of $3,000 per year and residence, while Dr. Roberts is President, with the same salary, a home, and holds the reins. Mathematically speaking the result is as follows: As the Assembly Presbyterian School is to the Southern, so is the first fiddler to the second. From the start Dr. Blanton will be on the go, while Richmond, the home of Central, is out in the cold.

KENTUCKY BAPTIST HONORED.

The election of Dr. T. T. Eaton to the Vice Presidency of the Southern Baptist Convention in session at New Orleans last week was a recognition of power among Kentucky Baptists as well as a tribute to the eminent divine.

Believed to be Safe From Kentucky Bloodhounds, He Purchases a Residence in Indianapolis.

Governor W. S. Taylor, of Kentucky has purchased a residence at 2121 North Delaware street from former Judge Hackney, of the Supreme Court, and his friend believe he has received assurance of protection and has determined to make that State his future home. The assurance that Governor Durbin will not honor a requisition for his return to Kentucky is said to have come indirectly through the executive office, but not from the Governor himself, but it is so direct that Governor Taylor feels that there is no probability of his being surrendered to Kentucky and New York bloodhounds. He paid $50,000 for his new home, which is located in one of the most splendid residence districts in the city.

The above, headlines and notice, was clipped from the Lexington Leader of May 8th.

We would remind the editor of the Leader and his correspondent that blood-hounds are used to trace and capture thieves, escaped convicts, jailbirds, murderers, arsonists and other criminals. These sometimes escape arrest. We are informed that Mr. Taylor "feels safe." Does the editor mean to admit the guilt of Mr. Taylor? No doubt there are thousands, yes hundreds of thousands of men and women in Kentucky and abroad (in Indiana) who are convinced that he is guilty of complicity in murder, and through imperfect extradition laws is held a refugee in a neighboring State. Poor fellow!

Because Mrs. McKinley has written a letter or which is the same given expression of her kind feeling for, and the good traits of her husband, really citing incidents worthy of commendation, some people have a more exalting opinion of the now touring executive.

The trial of Withers, murderer of young Roysse, was continued until Monday. It is safe to say he will be held to answer without bond. A speedy trial and death sentence would be justice.

Any brute who would assault a woman deserves nothing-short of death.

FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS

TO TORRENT AND JACKSON.

On Friday morning at 5:50 the writer left for a trip up the L. & E. At the depot he met John W. White and T. D. Jones, who were enroute to Carlisle. They informed us that they and Jno. L. McCormick, J. W. Burton and Davis O'Rear had been summoned to appear before the Nicholas County Grand Jury on that day.

Since their return we learn that the grand jury interrogated them concerning the distillery located in our city. They were informed that the sloop which runs into the creek here has killed large quantities of fish and has polluted the stock water in Nicholas county to such an extent that an effort will be made to suppress the nuisance. There is much complaint there on account of this. Later we will tell what action the grand jury took and will note the proceedings of the court.

At Winchester we learned that on Thursday afternoon at her country home, "Dunreath," Mrs. David Perwitt entertained quite a number of lady friends at a Library Party. An elegant dinner was served. Among the guests were Mesdames Thomas Kennedy and J. A. Vansant, of this city.

At 8:30 our train left with a car attached carrying Prof. Hagerman and about 65 young ladies from Hamilton College, who were to see the sights at Natural Bridge. Some of the people along the way were evidently not accustomed to College Yells. We did not venture into the car, but occasionally looked in.

We saw one young man who assisted the newsboy in selling fruit and candies.

At Clay City a force of men was engaged in putting in a fountain and making flower beds in the L. & E. Company's park at the depot. We heard that five thousand plants would be put out.

We thank the gentlemen for their thoughtfulness in thus beautifying their route. Natural Bridge will be made still more attractive. A large green-house located here will supply plants for those stations along the route where improvements will be made.

TORRENT.

We spent a few hours here and were pleased to meet the new manager, W. W. Howe, of Carlisle, who is now in charge, putting things in order for the season. The hotel is always open. The date for the formal opening will be announced later.

Mr. Howe is a younger man than we expected to see. He is not, however, a novice at the hotel business and will, we trust, add to the reputation of this attractive and popular resort.

Mrs. Howe will look after the social features, and Mrs. Bettie Kellar, who for 14 years was in charge of the Smith House in Cynthia, will direct the kitchen and dining room.

Stanley W. Kellar, son of Green Kellar, of the Carlisle Mercury, and kinsman of the manager, will be in and out to add to the pleasures of the guests.

STABBED TO DEATH

Was W. L. Roysse, of Sharpshurg.

A Medical Student at Louisville.

On last Thursday afternoon John Withers, assistant Janitor of the Kentucky School of Medicine was drunk. He is very mean when in this condition. This afternoon Mr. Roysse was in charge and seeing the negro in this condition asked him to go away and not return until he became sober. Later in the evening the drunken negro returned and his very actions indicated impudence. He passed through and closed the door with a slam. Roysse spoke to him again and the negro becoming insulted, Roysse pushed him and he went to the bottom of the steps and returning without a word drove a blade into the heart of young Roysse killing him instantly. The negro fled and after some time was caught by the police and hurried to the County Jail. Enraged students of the college were in close pursuit and had they found him he would doubtless have been swung to the first limb.

Young Roysse was 27 years old, a model young man free from all bad habits and very popular at his home. His death was the cause of real sorrow and the fond mother was prostrated with grief. His remains reached here Friday accompanied by four students and one of the faculty and was met by about fifty of the young man's friends. His remains were conducted to his home and on Saturday a large crowd met to pay the last rites. Funeral was preached by Rev. F. J. Check and burial took place in Carlisle Cemetery.

TOOK IN SHOW.

"Mayor of Mt. Sterling" Here with a Delegation From That City.

The Mt. Sterling delegation landed here in full force this morning led by Charley Oldham, and little of the sight did they miss. They had in charge the famous mascot, Ben Berkley, known as the "Mayor of Mt. Sterling," and he was the center of attraction. Berkley is a diminutive darky about 60 years of age and was attired in a loud red vest, with bandanna trimmings, and several bouquets which would put to blush some of the local decorators attached to the lapel of his coat, and a walking cane decorated with ribbons of various colors, and to make up the picture a large Henry Clay prefect to projected from his mouth at which he puffed incessantly. Ben and his friends took in the big show during the afternoon and had a good time.—The Leader, Lexington, May 8.

They went to see the great show, Buffalo Bill.

Southern Baptists.

The Southern Baptists held two sessions in New Orleans Sunday and discussed the "Twentieth Century." Asheville, N. C., was selected as the next meeting place, and a resolution was offered declaring that the members of the Baptist Church believe the demands for indemnity from China are insupportable, and that the church should be willing to suffer for the cause of Christ.

Lick Skillet ky.

Mr Editor:
I was down in mt. sterling One da last week for the first time in my life. I did not have the chance to take in all the sites as I were on my Bridal trip, tho mee and and my gai enjoyed Our selves so Muoh partena, thats My darlings Name ses it is a heap bigger town than than she spected to see, I was surprised Myself, i thot it were about as big as lick skillet, thats the name of our county dat we Were Much Delighted over our trip in yore towe, we did not have time to go all over it but we were on some of the prinshpal busness strels so I were thot partena likes mt. sterlin SO much, we Were down to soldiers home avenue, we scoary more busness gon in on the * groany what little time we wur thare than yo would see in lick skillet in a months time, one of the men in the groory i believe thot called him sam he seemed to be a mitey clever fellow partena sed he give her a nice big Orang. She thinks the gentleman called sam a mighty nice man. we are comla back as soon as we git our gardin planted and we will git a rig and take in the whole. wee passed up may's ville Street by a big livry stable on the north east side and we noticed several goodlooking old like gentlemen setting about and one of them seemed to be whistling that good old tune called natches under the hill, partena wanted to stop and here him she said pap used to play it on his fiddle jest like the gentleman were a whisin it. I beswad her that it would to nuteh like we wer greenhorns to stop in front of the stable jest to here the old gentleman whispe, tho I no from the out of his jib he is a hoisole of a feller. wee noticed there wer quite a hused a mung the city Bosses and I made Sam Inquiries concerning the exsistment and I wer told tha were fixing for a Big Circus out on mr. Sam turley farm which wood continue all the summer if the city spondolicks heit out all rite, if not the whole thing would soon explode and turn to mud. I tel you the way wee hav of doing busness a round here is no truble to us at all, to good but no mater jes keep yore eye on the gun and say nufin. partena wants mee to sel out in lick skillet and come down there to live. she says she wants to get in lick of high class, she sed she met ladys on the street while there that wore fine dresses she ever seen with shoe strings that had long brass tips at the ends fastened a round there wast. I am all most sorry I selected mount sturling for our Bridal trip, it has jest got partena in a rage to live there.

I no I wont see eny more peace now till I sel out my lick skillet residence and move to mount sterlin.

I am a little skitish a bout bringing partena in a big town like that. she is offit party and a grate clay gal, and there is no telling she mite get a hove mee when she gets to warling them Brass end shoe strings in her belt, you no things sun times workes a little scatering tho wee both love each other to beet hens a pecking, at least wee think so and leave that impression eny way. however I taken a oath under suagr Higgin bottom pleging all my best love and cash to stand by partena as long as she wer abel to wash and cook for mee and I cant see eny thing in the way that caus us to ever regret the steps wee are pursuing. I be leave wee both dun wel to get each other and the only way we could of beet it would of bin to mised each other. I tel you yorn partena can sit as good a par of yorn socks as eny gal that ever handed a niting nedd. it only requies five minets for her to step out among the cows and bring in three or four gallons of as fine rich milk as ever you tasted. she ant a bit a shamed of work. she noe very later in the Spelling Book as well as I do. She wont growl and tattle a bout her neighbors when she is a sleep. I never here her grumbling a bout eny thing only when there is no bred and meet on the place, then she wont say mutch but eat chicken and cake rite along I tel you I am as happy as a hog driver now. I never newd what love was til I seen partena and by gosh I am going to treet her all rite you bet.

Nice Sum in Treasury.

The monthly balance sheet of the State Auditor and Treasurer shows a balance in the Treasury of $307,202.12.

"Take care of the pennies and the pounds will take care of themselves."

Large things are but an aggregation of small things. If we take care of the small things we are in effect taking care of the large things which the small things combine to make.

Take care what you eat, when you eat, and how you eat, and your stomach will take care of itself. But who takes care of such trivial things? That is why, some day, the majority of people have to take care of the stomach. When that day comes, there is no aid so effective in undoing the results of past carelessness as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, and restores the organs of digestion and nutrition to a condition of healthy activity. It cures biliousness, heartburn, flatulence, indigestion, palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities and a score of other ailments which are but the symptoms of disorder in the stomach and its allied organs.

Water to High.

The gunboat Scorpion cannot pass under the bridge at Memphis, and therefore will be compelled to anchor below the bridge. The occasion is to be at the reunion of Confederate Soldiers.

A Colored Scrap.

The negroes of Wades Mill and vicinity had a festival on John Craycraft's place near Wades Mill Saturday, May 4. In a short time trouble arose and shooting began. Asa Gess was shot in the side but not seriously hurt. Jeff Skillman had his leg broken by a bullet and amputation may be necessary. John Will Foster, who did the shooting, escaped and has not been arrested. The negroes are quite reticent as to the cause of the trouble.

Born in the Penitentiary.

The first child born in the penitentiary for many years, was born Tuesday night. The mother was Lou Bush, a negro woman, who was sent to the penitentiary from Winchester last fall to serve a life term for the murder of her baby which was found drowned in a barrel of blood and filth at Renaker's slaughter house.

A Lexington College Professor Says Smokers of Cigarettes Usually Fail.

Prof. B. H. Elliott, who occupies the chair of mathematics in Kentucky University, made the following startling statement:

"Almost without exception, my students addicted to the habitual use of cigarettes are unable to make any progress in higher mathematics. They may pass without great difficulty freshman and sophomore years, but when the junior and senior years are reached and deep and continued thought is required they struggle, often manfully, wave and fall. This fact is so often brought to my notice that it has become my custom each year to warn my classes against the use of tobacco, and especially cigarettes."

"When I see a man beginning to show signs of failure, if able, I attempt to learn the cause. If it is simply mental incapacity, or because his bent is not in that direction, of course I can do nothing. But when I find that he uses cigarettes, I speak to him privately and tell him that he must give up cigarettes or else the hope of passing. I am not a physician, but my experience has taught me that the continued use of cigarettes cripples deep mental exertion."

Like Wornout Horses.

An exchange sensibly remarks: "Boys with hats on the backs of their heads and long hair hanging down their foreheads, and cigarettes and smutty stories in their mouth, are cheaper than old worn-out horses. Nobody wants them at any price. Men will not employ them and girls will not marry them. They are not worth their keeping to anybody, and they will not keep themselves. If any boy who happens to read this answers to this description, let him take a look at himself and do what his conscience says is best to do."

"I have been suffering from Dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I can not praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly," thus writes Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. F. C. Duerson.

Wanted to Die.

Jerry Stubbledie, a seventy-year-old citizen of New Concord, Ky., is dead. He refused all medical attendance saying he had lived as long as he wished, and wanted to die.

Sound advice to those who have kidney and bladder troubles, is to take a safe, sure medicine like Foley's Kidney Cure. It always benefits the kidneys. F. C. Duerson.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or water-brash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation, such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which, with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. F. C. Duerson.

A Cup of Good Coffee

To get a really good cup of coffee you'll have to start back of the actual making; you'll have to look to the roasting and the grinding. In ARBUCKLES' you have a coffee that's scientifically roasted, and delivered to you with all the pores of the berry hermetically sealed. You're sure of a good cup of coffee because all the coffee flavor and aroma are kept intact until you want it. The fame of ARBUCKLES' induced other coffee packers to put out imitations of it. These imitations cost the grocer (and you) a cent a pound less than ARBUCKLES'. But don't be tempted to buy a package of some other coffee when you can get for it is actually less expensive than the cheap kind; goes further—besides being better flavored, more satisfying.

You will find a list of useful articles in each package of Arbuckles' Coffee. A definite part of one of these articles becomes yours when you buy the coffee. The one you select from the list will be sent you on condition that you send to our Nottin Department a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers.

Bodies Eaten by Cannibals.

A dispatch from Brisbane, Queensland, under date of May 8, says: "A search party which was returned from New Guinea, discovered the half-eaten remains of the Rev. James Chalmers and the Rev. Oliver Tomkins, of the London Missionary Society, and their followers, who were massacred in April by natives of Fly river, New Guinea, after a tribal fight."

Probably Postponed.

The new trial of Caleb Powers, convicted as accessory to the murder of Gov. Goebel, will probably be postponed for a year by the action of attorney Kinkaid for the defense in securing an extension of thirty days for the filing of a petition for the modification of the opinion of the Appellate Court, which was written by Judge Durrelle. The illness of Chief Counsel Sims, of the defense, was the ground for the request of the extension.

Bond Forfeited.

Warehouse Burned.

Tuesday night near Wyoming, Bath county, during an electric storm, lightning struck a large tobacco warehouse belonging to Snedegar Bros., and it was entirely consumed, together with about 85,000 pounds of tobacco. The insurance on the tobacco and warehouse is $5,000.

Worms Destroying Tobacco.

Tobacco growers near Versailles complain of very serious damage to plants by cut worms. The plant beds of Mr. James O. Shouse, near Mortonsville, are a total failure from this cause, and several beds forty feet long on J. A. Davis' farm were devastated by worms in a single night.

Destroyed by Fire.

Near the Forks of Elkhorn in Franklin county the residence of Hon. T. Y. Fitzpatrick was burned Monday of last week with all its contents. Loss about $5,000 without insurance. Mr. Fitzpatrick was until recently the representative in Congress of this district, and had recently refurbished his house throughout, intending to make his home there.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil is the means of life, and enjoyment of life to thousands: men women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food. But what is the use of food when you hate it, and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

If you have not tried it, send for a sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 405 Pearl Street, New York, N. Y. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

DEATHS.

THACKER.—The three-months-old child of Hilton Thacker died on Richmond street Sunday night.

Mrs. Anna Browninski Wright, wife of the Rev. Julius E. Wright, of Lagrange, presiding elder of the Shelbyville district, Kentucky Conference M. E. Church, South, died Tuesday at the Norton Infirmary, at Louisville, to which she had been removed to undergo an operation after being taken violently ill.

TATMAN.—Mr. J. Q. Stephens received a card on Thursday stating that his sister, Mrs. Aurelia Tatman, had died on Wednesday at her home in Bloomington, Ill. She was aged about 60 years. She was a good christian woman, and was much admired by her acquaintances. The remains were interred Thursday at Camargo, Ill.

SHAW.—Mrs. D. R. Shaw, mother of Mrs. J. C. Enoch, died at her home in Coshocton, Ohio, on last Wednesday of pneumonia, aged 65 years. Mrs. Enoch was summoned and with her son, Harry, arrived at the bedside about one hour before the good mother's death. Mrs. Shaw was a good christian woman and had been a member of the Methodist church for more than fifty years.

THE SICK.

Robert Payne, who has been in this city at the home of Joe C. Turley on North Maysville street, suffering with an amputation of the foot, is now in a very critical condition. On Sunday afternoon his attending physicians performed another operation, and this time took his limb off above the knee. This was necessary on account of blood poison. He is resting much easier.

Mrs. Albert Turley is sick with pneumonia at her home near Howards Mill.

Painful Accident.

Willie, little son of Mr. Ed. McClellan, was thrown violently to the ground from a wagon yesterday by the team starting suddenly, and his face painfully cut and bruised. Dr. Cox dressed the wounds. While the little fellow was painfully bruised and scared, he was not seriously hurt.

MARRIAGES.

CROCKETT-ALLEN.

In the midst of decorations, representing a flower garden, perfect in its beauty, at high noon Wednesday, May 8, in the Methodist church, Sharpsburg, Miss Rosa Dec, only child of J. W. Allen and John Richard, eldest son of J. Taylor Crockett, were married. Rev. J. K. Nunneley, of Georgetown officiating. Mrs. Claud Ratliff played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Dr. S. N. Stone, Bethel; W. L. Evans and W. F. Saunders, Sharpsburg; and L. Tipton Young, of this city, were the ushers. More perfect grace and time was never displayed by ushers. This was not only a happy day for the contracting parties, but for their many friends as well, because of their interest in them. The day was ideal. Early in the morning carriages began to arrive from cities and towns for miles around. It was soon evident that many would not be able to get in the church. Two more popular (deserving) so young people have never plighted lives in this, or any other community. Miss Allen is one of those sweet, modest, strong intellectual and religious characters that is loved by all, from the greatest to the least. Mr. Crockett is of that type of manhood that always has friends, true as steel, honest, sober, industrious, affable and jovial. Another token of the esteem in which the couple is held was manifest in the one hundred and twenty-five handsome presents received, many of them quite expensive. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left on a trip of several days for western cities. Upon their return they will at once go to housekeeping on the groom's farm near Bethel. Among those present from a distance to witness the marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Andrews and daughter, Miss Francis, Misses Jennie Daugherty, Francis Hendrick and Amie Harbeson, Flemingsburg; Mesdames Owen Ingles and Ben Howard, Messrs. Sanford Allen and wife, and Royce Allen and wife, Millersburg; Mr. Lewis Rogers and wife, Paris; Mrs. J. M. Pickrel and daughter, Bourbon county; Rev. George Rapp and brother and J. K. Nunneley and wife, Georgetown; Mrs. Morgan Goodpaster, Miss Bettie Peters and Mr. Eugene Brother, Owingsville, besides some half hundred from Mt. Sterling. The writer joins with a host of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Crockett in wishing that this beautiful May morning may be but the springtime of their love, happiness and usefulness; that the summer of life may find their love for each other perfectly rounded in its growth; that the autumn of life may find it so matured in its oneness that the golden wedding day may be just fifty times happier than the first.

[We add our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for this happy couple, hoping this union may renew on earth lost Eden's faded charms and fling hopes halcyon halo over the dead waste of life.—Ed.]

GAYHART-HOOD.

Yesterday in the office of Trimble Bros. grocery, Esquire John Trimble officiating, Miss Sarehan Ann Hood and Mr. Kelley Gayhart were married. An ADVOCATE reporter stepped in to ask about the marriage. Mr. Trimble did not know their names and pointed out the bride standing on the corner. We introduced ourselves and asked her name, which was given, and then we asked the name of the groom. The blushing bride confessed that she had known his name but that she had forgotten it. The gentleman who had acted as attendant came up and she asked him to tell her whom she had married, and he answered that he did not know either, but thought his name was Messer, or something that sounded like that. The bride then said "he is down here at a store; we uns will go down and ask him." We interviewed the gentleman, who said his name was Kelley Gayhart, and that they were from Knott county. Mrs. Gayhart said to the reporter afterwards: "I have only known him about a week and was not certain what his name was, so I could not tell you." The first arrangement was that they be married at Clerk O'Connell's office, where Esq. Will Henry was to perform the ceremony and Harry Fogg and Miss Lou Stevens were to act as attendants, but for some reason they did not go back. Here's hoping that he will not have as gay heart as his name suggests, and that she will not be Sarehan (An'd) hunting for him in the future.

COOKEY-ROWE.

On Wednesday, May 1, 1901, Mr. Millard G. Coosey and Miss Pearl B. Rowe, both of Denton, Ky., were married. The age of both is 19 years. The groom is an enterprising merchant of the firm Coosey & Son. We are not acquainted with the bride but extend congratulations and best wishes.

HENRY-FREEMAN.

Mr. J. L. Henry, of Lexington, and Miss Stella Freeman, of this city, were married in Cincinnati Sunday, May 12. To them we extend best wishes.
